Courtesy Extended Mrs. Snowden

Mrs. Snowden, who spoke in this city on Saturday evening, was accorded every courtesy in Shelbyville, where she spoke on the following evening, every pastor in the place giving way to her that the people might hear her splendid lecture.

Aged Men Ill.

Mr. J. C. Rucker, of Paint Lick, the venerable father of our fellow townsman, Jonas Rucker, is dangerously ill. He has suffered the third stroke of paralysis. Owing to his advanced age, no hope is entertained for his recovery.

Mr. J. Wade Walker, who formerly lived in this city, but now of Paint Lick, is also dangerously ill from his second severe stroke of paralysis and no hope is held out for his recovery.

Buys Million Residence.

Mr. L. E. Lane, one of our prominent jewelers has bought the elegant home of Col. B. B. Millon, on West Main street. The price paid is $10,500.

Possession will be given January 1st, 1916. This is one of the handsomest residences in the city and was only recently erected. Col. Millon will move to Lexington January 1st, and will make that city his home.

We regret to lose this excellent family and hope that they may yet see their way clear to remain with us.

The Colonel is a hostler and will make things hom in Lexington.

Subscription Dinner.

The subscription dinner given Friday evening by Mrs. Edgar Blanton and Miss Elizabeth Blanton for the benefit of the poor children of Caldwell High School, was indeed a success. The cause was a most worthy one and much credit is due to them for their unselfish and charitable work. About fifty guests responded to the invitations and a substantial sum was realized for this excellent cause.

Second Bloom.

Mr. Jonas Rucker brought to our eye today a bunch of pretty well developed peach blooms, gathered from a tree in his father's orchard at Paint Lick, this county. This is the second bloom this year.

This reminds us that about a month ago Mr. George Park in this city telephoned us that he had a cherry tree in his yard that had on it the second crop of cherries and was then blooming for the third.

Many other instances of the second crop have occurred in this county. The season has been an unusual one in many ways.

Mr. Rucker is the efficient agent of the L. & N. R. R. this city and Mr. Park is a merchant of the east end.

Boston Tea Party.

With a "Boston Tea Party," marking the women's demand for equal rights with men at the polls, the twenty-sixth annual convention of the Kentucky Equal Rights Association convened at "Ashland," the historic home of Henry Clay, at Lexington, Monday afternoon. More than two hundred delegates and guests were present from all parts of the Commonwealth, neighboring States and foreign countries. Mrs. Thomas H. Clay, of Boston, Mass., furnished the tea for the party. On Monday evening Mrs. Philip Snowden, of England, addressed the Convention. The visitors were welcomed to the city by Mayor J. E. Cassidy and by Mrs. F. O. Young on behalf of the Fayette Equal Rights Association.

More Fires.

Thursday about noon the Fire Department was called to Big Hill avenue to the home of Prof. J. D. M. Russell, principal of the Colored High School. When the fire fighters arrived on the scene, owing to the dry weather conditions, the flames had gained such headway they were beyond control. The residence, together with nearly all the contents were destroyed, very little being saved, the family being away from home. The loss will reach $5,000, only partly covered by insurance. Prof. Russell was offered $2,000 for this residence about ten days since, but refused the offer.

The residence of Emmett Embury, city mail carrier and also colored, caught on fire from sparks from the Russell residence and was completely gutted. Most of the household effects were saved. The loss on the house and effects will reach $3,500 and is only partly covered by insurance. This was a splendid two story residence and worth about $2,000. Indeed, does the head of Fats fall most heavily upon these two worthy colored men.

Friday morning about 10 o'clock an alarm was turned in and the "boys" hustled to the home of Mr. Ed. Ballard on Collins street. In some unknown manner the stable and corn crib of Mr. Ballard, which are near his handsome brick residence, had caught fire, and were almost completely destroyed together with some hay, corn and harness, possibly entailing a loss of $300. Fortunately, his residence was covered with metal roofing and escaped injury.

Sunday morning about 4 o'clock the fire bell aroused many from their lethargic slumbers. The fire ladies responded, and a car loaded with pine lumber, consigned to Bowman Bros. contractors and builders, was partially destroyed near the L. & N. depot.

Pretty Informal Dinner Gown

Designed by Lane Bryant, New York.

THIS informal dinner or tea gown is of the finest crepe meter. The box plaited skirt is gathered to the waist on a prettily shirred flexible girdle. The flare collar is of silk shadow lace finished at the neck with two narrow bands and tiny bows of black velvet ribbon. The deep vest is also of the lace. The draped cotelet tapers to the neck at back and at the front forms revers. It fastens with a pretty corded ornament. The lace cuffs are banded with ribbon, and the waist is silk lined throughout. The gown can be had in black, navy or wistaria.

In Society

Club Notes.

The Department of Literature of the Woman's Club, gave the second program of the year on Monday afternoon and a more delightful one could hardly have been chosen. The subject, "Russia" was made most instructive and entertaining, the opening talk being made by the Chairman, Miss Lucia Burnam. Mrs. J. R. Pates discussed "Russia" under the "Alexanders," and was followed by Miss Helen Bennett, on the life of "Gortchakoff," Mrs. Mary B. Clay, was to have given "Memories of the Russian Court" but was unable to be present on account of illness, and Mrs. E. B. Barnes very kindly consented to take her place and by request, gave an account of a very interesting field of bones, near Los Angeles, the same having attracted the attention of the sciences. The next meeting will be November 22nd, at which time the program will be under the direction of Mrs. Kellogg, Chairman of Music.

The first issue of the Kentucky Woman's Club has been received by local club women and this magazine is indeed an honor to Kentucky women. The editor is Mrs. J. H. Dickey, of Louisville, a woman well known throughout the State for her journalistic ability.

"Kentucky took a step forward when she separated her juvenile reformatories from her prisons. She must go farther today, and separate her children from the penal system. Her schools must be taken out of hands of the Prison Commission."

A very choice program was given by the Sherwood Club on Saturday afternoon, when Miss Lillian Smith entertained the Club.

The subject was, "Durand," and Miss Russell White gave sketch of the composer's life. Others who took part were: Misses Duncan Foster, Mary Allen Deatherage, Dorothy Perry, Cynthia Davidson, Elizabeth Burnam and Gladys and Lillian Smith.

Miss Mollie Fife was hostess on Wednesday of an all day party, the morning being given in compliment to Mrs. Gates, of Pittsburgh, Pa., and Mrs. Grider, who will leave shortly for California.

The afternoon was the first meeting of the Married Ladies' Bridge Club, and proved to be a very delightful meeting.

In the morning the prizes were won by Mrs. McCaughy and Mrs. Gates; in the afternoon the trophy was won Mrs. Tyng, who played for Mrs. E. T. Burnam.

A pretty affair of Tuesday evening was the dinner given by Miss Helen Bennett, to Mrs. W. M. Ritter and Mr. James Divine, of Columbus, Ohio.

A dainty and delightful menu was served to the following guests: Mrs. W. M. Ritter, Mr. James Divine, Mr. and Mrs. Mr. Chester Hammonds, of Danville.

Mrs. George Nippert and Mrs. Hanley Nippert, of Cincinnati, will come this week to visit Judge and Mrs. J. D. Dykes.

Mr. and Mrs. Jonah Rucker spent Sunday in Paint Lick, at the bedside of Mr. J. C. Rucker, father of Mr. Rucker.

Mrs. Waller Bennett, Mrs. Thompson Burnam, and Miss Lucia Burnam went to Lexington, Monday to attend the Suffrage Convention and will be present at the reception given at Ashland.

Miss Sude J. McPherson, is the guest of Mrs. J. C. Chenault, on North street.

Miss Fannie Willing is visiting friends in Cincinnati.

Mrs. Gaines Jasper and Mr. Gord on H. Barnes, spent the week-end at home.

Dr. Zinke and family motored to Lexington on Sunday and spent the day.

Mrs. W. F. Park went to Lexington Tuesday morning to attend the Suffrage Convention.

Mr. Jack Adams, of Middlesboro, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Adams, a few days last week.

Mr. Chester Hammonds, of Danville.

was the guest of Miss Hattie Hutchinson, Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Bart Hutchinson, Miss Hattie Hutchinson, Mr. and Mrs. Ike Hutchinson, all of this city, spent the day, Sunday, with their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hutchinson, in Estill county.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Graves are receiving congratulations over the arrival of a daughter. She has been christened Edith Bailey.

Mrs. James Crutcher has been the guest of her father, Col. C. D. Chenault, of Lexington, on legal business.

Hon. John B. Chenault, of Maysville, is in the city.

Elmer Lanter was in Mt. Vernon Saturday on legal business.

Mrs. F. O. Barnes and Mrs. Hanly Nippert, of Cincinnati, are guest of Judge and Mrs. J. D. Dykes.

Mr. Edwin C. Wines leaves this morning for Miami, Florida, where he will assume charge of a leading drug store in that thriving little city. Edwin was born and reared in this city, is a fine young fellow and has the best wishes of a legion of friends.

Mrs. Sallie B. Bowles and Mr. Mason Anglin, were quietly married Nov. 8th, at the Baptist parsonage by Rev. J. R. Reynolds. The bride is well known here and will leave behind a host of friends.

The groom is a prominent farmer in the vicinity of Berea. The happy couple left Tuesday for their home near Berea, followed by congratulations and best wishes from a host of friends.

CHURCH NOTES

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

The Presbyterian ladies entertained with a "Silver Tea" on Wednesday afternoon at the church, and quite a nice sum was realized, the same to be used in starting a mission in the eastern part of the city.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

Preaching, 10:45 and 7 in the evening, the third of the series will be given: "Martin Luther," the Monk that shook the world. You will be interested.

The Circle and the C. W. B. M. of the Christian Church will entertain the missionary societies of the churches of the city on Friday afternoon Nov. 12, at half past two o'clock at the Church. All societies are invited.

The ladies of the Christian church will give a food sale on November 24, the day before Thanksgiving. Place announced later.

The C. W. B. M. met on Wednesday afternoon at the Christian church and a very interesting session was held with Mrs. J. W. Zaring as leader. The hostesses were: Mesdames Jas. Moore, W. L. Arnold, E. T. Burnam, J. W. Zaring and Miss Pattie Deatherage.

Elder L. H. Reynolds, a venerable minister of the Christian church and one of the ablest of that denomination, will deliver a lecture-sermon at Pleasantwood next Sunday morning on "The Devil, man's greatest enemy." Elder Reynolds has devoted several years of his best thought, in the preparation of this lecture. He is in his 90th year but preaches with the same earnestness and vigor that has always characterized his preaching.

M. E. CHURCH, SOUTH.

Rev. M. S. Clark, of the Methodist church, will be absent from the city next Sunday, at Bloomfield, holding a revival. Dr. J. G. Crabbe will fill his pulpit in the morning service. In the evening praise service will be held and Prof. R. G. Stott will speak.

The week of prayer began Monday at the Methodist Church at which time Miss Belle Bennett was the leader, and gave a most helpful and interesting program.

At the Christian Science church, the subject for November 11th will be "Mortal and Immortal."

Excerpts From Old Papers

Published in Richmond a Century Ago.

We are very much indebted to Prof. Ivan McDougle for the following excerpts taken from the Richmond Globe and Luminary published here a century ago. Prof. McDougle is research student and at present is delving in the files of old Kentucky papers now in possession of the American Antiquarian Society. Prof. McDougle promises to send other clippings which we will be glad to publish for our subscribers.)

Publishers Note in Richmond, Kentucky Globe—Issue of January 24, 1810.

The Globe in the future will be printed on Wednesdays; and we shall send to Lexington on our Eastern paper between Friday and Monday. Any person going to Lexington from this town, or neighborhood, will confer a particular favor upon the editors by applying at that Postoffice and bringing any papers which may belong to us, for which they shall be compensated—any person inclining to favor us will please call at our office for an order to the Postmaster, Lexington.

We shall in future send our papers to Benj. Langford, the Crab Orchard, Lincoln, etc., by post, and deduct one half the price of postage from the terms of the present year. We shall receive the news from the eastward by Lexington, which comes there on Friday and Monday.

We publish it on Wednesday, send it out to Mr. Rice's and meet the post from Danville, etc., who will carry it to the above places on Friday and Saturday.
